

Reforestation plan

A reforestation plan has been carried out in the farm proximity. In this area the community with our support introduced a reforestation plan by planting Avicennia Germinans (Curumo or Black Mangrove). For the land preparation, channels connected to the main farm drain channel have been designed and created. The seedling was performed on September 20, 2018.

