

Wildlife Protection

In order to control the reptile mortality (especially iguanas and garrobos) living in the Camaronera El Faro water channels have been created during the dry season (December-June). The local staff is in charge of refilling the channels periodically.

Date: March 03, 2018

